

SUSTAINABLE ENTREPRENEURSHIP GLOBAL LESSONS LEARNED

March 24th, 2022

10 am - 1 pm (Paraguay)

2 pm - 5 pm (Germany)

3 pm - 6 pm (South Africa)

For students, teachers, facilitators, NGOs, activists, and anyone interested in making our world more sustainable.

sponsored by:

PROGRAM - SESSION 1

In this first of three sessions we will explore approaches to promoting sustainable entrepreneurship - from financial literacy in Paraguay to innovative business ideas in South Africa to microfinancing for small and medium enterprises in Cambodia.

02:00 pm
(Germany)

INTRODUCTION
Elke Weißer & Mary Whalen, EPIZ

PRESENTATIONS

02:10 pm

Learning - Teaching - Training: What micro, small and medium-sized enterprises in Paraguay need
Lic. Tania Riline, German Sparkassenstiftung for International Cooperation

02:35 pm

Young and Green Entrepreneurship in South Africa - why it matters, what youth need and how they can thrive
Christian Mcree & Teresa Boule, Amava Oluntu

Incubation Model and Methodology
Ncebakazi Mathanzima, Centre for Entrepreneurship Methodology, False Bay College

03:00 pm

Is Microfinancing a Contribution to Sustainable Development?
Sophia Cramer, EPIZ

03:25 pm

Breakout Session

03:55 pm

Break

04:10 pm

Discussion & Wrap-up

05:00 pm

End

Learn more about:

- EPIZ Berlin - Center for Global Learning. \(Germany\)
- Amava Oluntu \(South Africa\)
- Centre for Entrepreneurship Methodology at the False Bay College \(South Africa\)
- German Sparkassenstiftung for International Cooperation \(Paraguay\)

REGISTER HERE:

https://bit.ly/globalvoices22_1

ANY QUESTIONS?

Send an email to:

epiz@epiz-berlin.de

